3. Availability and Purpose of this PAIA Manual

This PAIA Manual is published on the Cyclopedic Consulting's website, or alternatively, a copy may be requested from the Cyclopedic Consulting's Information Officer, which copy may also be inspected at the Cyclopedic Consulting's physical address outlined in paragraph 2 above.

The primary purpose of this PAIA Manual is to facilitate requests for access to information held by Cyclopedic Consulting, which requests shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures and at the prescribed rates provided for in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this PAIA Manual. In addition to the above, the further purposes of this PAIA Manual are to describe the records held by Cyclopedic Consulting and to clearly articulate the grounds upon which access to any such records may be refused.

4. The Act and Section 10 Guide

The Act grants a requester access to records of a private body, subject to the record being necessary for the exercise or protection of any right(s). Should a public body lodge a request for access to records, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests in terms of the Act shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures and at the prescribed rates provided. The forms and rates are dealt with in paragraphs 8 and 9 of this Manual.

Requestors are referred to the Guide on how to use the Act, which Guide can be found in Chapter 3 and Section 10 of the Act. The said Guide has been amended and updated in an easily comprehensible form and manner by the Regulator in order to assist the Requestor to use the Act.

The Guide can also be obtained:

Upon request to Cyclopedic Consulting's Information Officer by completing FORM 1: REQUEST FOR A COPY OF THE GUIDE, which form can be downloaded from the website of the Information Regulator here: <https://infoeregulator.org.za/paia-forms/>

A copy of the Guide is also available at the office of the Information Regulator in English, for public inspection during normal office hours.

7. Grounds for Refusal of Access to Records

Upon receipt of a formal request for access to records, Cyclopedic Consulting will be required to consider such a request in light of the provisions of Section 50 of the Act. Subject to such consideration, Cyclopedic Consulting will be required to either grant such a request or refuse such a request. Should Cyclopedic Consulting refuse access to a particular record, such refusal will be subject to Cyclopedic Consulting's interpretation of the various prescribed grounds for refusal as outlined in Chapter 4 of the Act, as tabled below:

Ground(s) for Refusal	Description and Explanation of Ground(s) for Refusal
Mandatory protection of privacy of third party who is a natural person [Section 63 of the Act]	Cyclopedic Consulting may refuse access to a record if the disclosure of that record would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information relating to a third party, including a deceased individual.
Mandatory protection of commercial information of third party [Section 64 of the Act]	Cyclopedic Consulting may refuse a request for access to a record if the record comprises of, or is constituted by, the following information relating to a third party – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trade secrets of a third party; • Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, other than Trade secrets, of a third party, which, if disclosed, is likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of the third party; • Information which has been supplied in confidentiality by a third party, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to place the third party at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or is likely to prejudice the third party in commercial competition.
Mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party [Section 65 of the Act]	Cyclopedic Consulting may refuse access to a record which, if disclosed, would constitute an action for breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party in terms of an agreement or contractual relationship.
Mandatory protection of safety of individuals and protection of property [Section 66 of the Act]	Cyclopedic Consulting may refuse a request for access to a record if its disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual, or if its disclosure would be likely to prejudice or impair the security of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a building, structure or system, including but not limited to a computer or communication system, a means of transport or any other property; • method(s), system(s), plans or procedures for the protection of an individual in accordance with a witness protection scheme, the safety of the public, or any part of the public or the security of property.

Mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings [Section 67 of the Act]	Cyclopedic Consulting may refuse a request for access to a record if the record is privileged from production in legal proceedings unless the person entitled to the privilege has waived the privilege.
Commercial information of Private Body [Section 68 of the Act]	Cyclopedic Consulting may refuse a request for access to a record if the record contains (or comprises of): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Trade secrets of the Private Body; • Financial, commercial, scientific or technical information, other than Trade secrets of the Private Body, the disclosure of which would be likely to cause harm to the commercial or financial interests of the Private Body; • Information, the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to put the Private Body at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the Private Body in commercial competition; • A computer programme (as defined in section 1(1) of the Copyright Act 98 of 1978 as amended) owned by the Private Body, except insofar as it is required to give access to a record to which access is granted in terms of the Act.
Mandatory protection of research information of third party, and protection of research information of private body [Section 69 of the Act]	Cyclopedic Consulting may refuse a request for access to a record if the record contains information about research being or to be carried out by or on behalf of a third party/Private Body, the disclosure of which would be likely to expose the third party/Private Body, a person that is (or will be) carrying out the research on behalf of the third party/Private Body, or the subject matter of the research to serious disadvantage.
Records that cannot be found or do not exist [Section 23 of the Act]	Should there be reasonable grounds to believe that the requested record cannot be found or does not exist, then and in such event, Cyclopedic Consulting will inform the requestor in the form of an affidavit that it is not possible to give access to such record.

8. Form of Request

To facilitate the processing of your request, kindly:

- Use the prescribed Form 2, as provided for in Annexure A;
- Address your request to the Information Officer.
- Provide sufficient details to enable Cyclopedic Consulting to identify:
 - The record(s) requested.
 - The requestor (and if an agent is lodging the request, proof of capacity and the necessary Power of Attorney).
 - The form of access required.
 - The postal address or e-mail address of the requester in (which postal address must be situated within the Republic of South Africa).
- If the requester wishes to be informed of the decision in any other manner in addition to written confirmation, the manner and particulars of such manner.
- The right which the requester is seeking to exercise or protect, with an explanation of the reason the record is required to exercise or protect such right.
- The Information Officer will respond to a request in the format of Form 3, as listed in Annexure B. The said Form is used to report the outcome of a request as well as information regarding the required fees payable, if applicable.
- The prescribed forms can also be downloaded from the Information Regulator's website here: <https://info regulator.org.za/paia-forms/>

9. Prescribed Fees

The following prescribed fees will apply to requests for information (other than personal requests):

- A requester is required to pay the prescribed fee of R50.00 before a request will be processed.
- If the preparation of the record requested requires more than the prescribed 6 (six) hours, a deposit shall be paid (of not more than one third of the access fee which would be payable if the request were granted).
- A requester may lodge an application with a court against the tender/payment of the request fee and/or deposit.
- Records may be withheld until the above-prescribed fees have been paid.

10. Remedies Available when a Request is Denied

10.1 Internal Remedies

There is no internal appeal procedure that may be followed after a request to access information has been refused. The decision made by the Information Officer is final.

If a request is denied and the requester is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision, the requester will be required to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if a request for information is refused.

1.2 External remedies

A requester or a third party who is dissatisfied with an Information Officer's refusal to disclose information or the disclosed information may, within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a court with appropriate jurisdiction or contact the Information Regulator for relief.

1.3 Time Afforded to Cyclopedic Consulting

Cyclopedic Consulting is required to, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of a request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and, if required, provide the requester with reasons to that effect.

The 30 (thirty) day period stipulated above may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires an extensive search for information which cannot reasonably be obtained within the originally stipulated 30 (thirty) day period.

In circumstances contemplated above, Cyclopedic Consulting will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.
